WHITES BESIAGED BY MOB OF NEGROES

Fight in Construction Camp—Three Blacks Killed—Whites Rescued

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Feb. 8.—After killing three negroes of a mob besieging them at their construction camp near Hall's Barr, a party of white survivors was rescued today by Captain Burke and a posse of local policemen. Yesterday it was learned that armed with rifles, negroes had surrounded the whites, who took refuge behind an unfinished dam they are constructing. The rescuers started immediately.

The trouble is believed to have originated in an altercation the negroes had with the bosses.

"SOCIETY SWELLS" WANT MEAT TO BE GOOD AND RIPE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Food inspector Dodge, before the committee on investigation of the high cost of living, testified that "putrid meat is demanded by society swells," who won't eat it unless it is ready to fall to pieces. He said that during Roosevelt's administration, the White House steward bought beef by the quarters and hung it in the open air. He said Roosevelt inspected the meat daily, poked his finger into it, and refused to allow its use until it was "good and ripe."

Dodge said he was about to condemn some pieces of meat of a Washington butcher, when the butcher asked him to hold off a few minutes, as the footman employed by a high society member was waiting outside for a roast off that particular piece. Representative Johnson of Kentucky, declared that eating such meat was the result of a "canine" appetite, and asked Dodge:

"Do butchers keep this kind of meat in the same box intended for civilized people?"

"I think they do," replied the inspector.

SKELETON IS IDENTIFIED

Woman's Remains Found on Mt. Tamalpais Believed to be Those of Miss Jensen

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 8.—Three coincidences today lead the police to believe that the woman's skeleton found on Mt. Tamalpais is that of Miss E. Jensen of Denver. Mrs. Eleanor Littlefield, employed as a manicure, formerly a teacher of manicuring, visited the San Rafael morgue and identified the dead woman's effects as those of a young German woman who studied under her. Later another girl, also a student, recollected that her name was Jensen.

About the same time I. H. Valentine, of 10 Commercial street, manager of the Reliable Cash Store, reported to the police that Miss Jensen's trunk had been left there since June. A tag attached to the trunk indicated it had been sent from Los Angeles. He said Miss Jensen wore a watch similar to that found on the skeleton.

CORONER BELIEVES WOMAN DIED TO SAVE HER HONOR

SAN RAFAEL, Feb. 8.—Coroner Sawyer stated to the United Press today his opinion that the murdered woman whose skeleton was found on Mt. She was probably killed fighting for her honor.

GIVE PERMIT FOR PIPE LINE ON ROAD

Factory's Petition Granted So Far as County Was Concerned

PROPERTY OWNERS STILL TO BE SEEN

Angle Failed to Appear and Matter Passed on During His Absence

The Board of Supervisors this afternoon granted a permit to the Southern California Sugar Co. for laying a pipeline along the Delhi road west from the factory. It is proposed to use the pipeline to carry away the waste water from the factory to lands near the Santa Ana river channel. The matter came up last week, but owing to the absence of Supervisor Angle, who could not be found on that day, the matter was postponed until today. Angle was not on hand today, and the board took the petition up for action evidently having concluded that whatever courtesy due Angle because the road is in his district had been assuaged by the delay until today.

The petition stated that the pipeline would be laid on the north side of the road. This morning the petitioners struck out the words locating which side of the road the pipeline shall go upon.

Just before noon the board went to the road by automobile and viewed the proposed line. This afternoon the matter came up for settlement.

Deputy District Attorney Finley stated that the county has only an easement on the road, the title resting with the adjoining property owners. All the county can do is to give a permit that so far as it is concerned the permit could be granted.

The county cannot give a franchise. Attorney Head said that all the petitioners ask for is a permit to lay the line, the matter of the property owners to be attended to later.

Chairman MacMullen declared the thing for the petitioners to have done was to have seen the property owners first and then come to the board. He said it would look better if the board knew what the property owners thought of the matter inasmuch as they would have to be agreed anyhow.

Supervisors Talbert and Smith stated that the board could give a permit so far as it was concerned, and let the petitioners see the property owners afterward. Talbert moved that the petition be granted. Smith seconded. On roll call Smith, Lindeberger and Talbert vote, aye. When MacMullen's name was called he said: "It's granted. I might as well vote yes, too."

The board accepted an advertising proposal from the Santa Fe Employees Magazine. The county will use one-half a page in the magazine, published monthly, for one year at $30 per month.

Auditor Lester was authorized to buy a filing case to cost $104.

A map of Brooks' First Addition to Laguna Beach was accepted.

Deadly Gas in Halley's Comet Will be Repelled by the Earth They Say

BOSTON, Feb. 8.—Scientists of Boston and Cambridge are apparently divided in opinion as to the effect upon life of the cyanogen gas believed to be present in the tail of Halley's comet. It has been established that cyanogen bands show plainly in the comet's spectra at the Yerkes Observatory. This fact was made known by Camille Flammarion, the French scientist, who ventured the opinion that the gas is colorless, with a poisonous, almond-like odor, and that it may possibly destroy all life on earth. The majority of local scientists do not agree with him. They say the gas is so rarified that it will be repelled by the earth.

TAFT FACING DUAL FIGHT IN COMING CRISIS

"Interests" as Well as Congress Will Make Contest a Bitter One

MONEY POWER ENGAGED IN GIVING OBJECT LESSON

Manipulating Stocks With the View of Influencing Taft and the Courts

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—President Taft is facing the question whether he must fight to a finish with the big financial interests as well as with congress in order to carry through his legislative program. It is known that financial magnates have visited the White House this winter and made threats of a panic. They fear the federal incorporation bill introduced into congress yesterday. It is believed, however, that Wall Street is most worried by the possibility of the United States supreme court upholding the anti-trust law in the cases of the American Tobacco and Standard Oil companies. The supreme court is to decide whether these vast companies must dissolve or not. As the day for decision approaches the nervousness of the interests increases. It is not known when the decision is to be made.

INTERESTS FORCING SMALL SIZED PANIC

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—The "interests" are giving the Taft administration and the supreme court a "lesson," by pronounced manipulations of the stock markets, say experts. Direct charges are made that stock fluctuations are being made for the purpose of influencing the government in dealing with the trusts. It is declared the money power is determined to give a practical demonstration of what might be expected if the tobacco trust should be dissolved, or the decision dissolving the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey be upheld.

An undercurrent of support with a sharp fractional rally, following the opening of the stock market under heavy pressure today, showed that the "interests," who are believed to be giving the government an object lesson, intend to give just enough strength to prevent a disastrous panic. It is believed the "interests" will take care to protect themselves from severe loss, but the "lesson" is proving expensive to those unprepared. Many men credited with clearing millions in the sensational upward movement of steel and Reading stocks, have seen all their profits wiped out by the steady downward movement of these stocks in the last few weeks. It is stated officially that the banks are in good condition, and there is the strongest belief throughout the financial districts that, despite the slumping tendency the market is under control of the powers and "well in hand."

TRUSTEES PLAN LARGE AMOUNT OF STREET IMPROVEMENT WORK

PROCEDURE FOR ROCK AND OIL ON WEST FOURTH AND FRENCH

Gravel and Oil May Be Used Extensively—Addition to Birch Park is Now City's Property

Last night's meeting of the city trustees was an important one so far as streets were concerned. There were no bids received for paving West Fourth with the patented paving of Warren Brothers Co., and the trustees for all time abandoned work under the specifications covered by the patent. None of the trustees feels justified in paying a royalty of twenty-five cents per square yard. In place of this paving, proceedings were ordered begun for paving West Fourth from Parion to Baker with rock and oil macadam. Similar proceedings were ordered for French street from Fifth to Washington. It is the intention of the trustees to begin oiling and paving streets under the Vrooman Act. The street committee and superintendent were instructed last night to prepare a list of streets that should be improved in that manner. The city proposes to put the streets to grade and let the graving and oiling to contract, the property owners to pay for all but the grading.

G. W. Smith, the cement contractor, was on hand in belligerent mood. He drew fire from three trustees. Chairman McFadden threatened to have the marshal remove him from the room.

No Bids Received
City Clerk Tedford stated that he had received no bids for paving West Fourth street with asphalt. The city had demanded that all bidders show clearance papers from the owner of the patented process. A letter from the Barber Asphalt Co. was read stating that it could not bid on the work because two blocks were included in the procedure that it was not intended to pave, because there was no way of telling whether the grade line was at the center of the street or at the curb, and because the city had not made its peace with the patentee.

Attorney Heathman—"An attorney for the patent people was here with a form for the city to sign agreeing to pay Warren Brothers Co. twenty-five cents a square yard as royalty. I told him we had lost all interest in the process and would not think of paying royalty."

Tedford—"The Fairchild, Wilton Gilmore Co. telephoned it would not bid at this time."

Harris—"And a few weeks ago its representative was itching from the toes to his scalp for a chance to test this patent, and now he quits before the fight begins."

Tedford said that with the raise in the price of rock macadam Vrooman Act proceedings would be necessary to carry it through on West Fourth. Thompson moved that the engineer prepare specifications for six-inch rock and oil macadam and the attorney prepare resolutions to start the procedure. Carried.

French Street Too
It was stated that three petitions had been started for paving French street, one having been lost after it was all signed up and the others never were filed. Procedure for paving it under the Vrooman Act from Fifth to Washington was ordered.

For the 'Seventh Time
Recently it would not be a trustee meeting without a third of their time taken up in hearing the same old talk about adding a slice and cutting off a slice of Fifteenth street between Bush and French. Last night was no exception, and the difficulty is no nearer solution than it was a month ago. To the alley east of Push from Main the street is a 60-foot street. There it narrows ten feet. Charles Walters and G. W. Smith propose giving five or six feet if the city will give enough from the alley to Bush to make the block uniform. Mrs. Hunzinger, who owns a lot on the street, will give nothing. Last night Walters asked the board to abandon its strip. Property owners have remonstrated to abandoning anything. Smith said the city had to deed before he would sign anything.

Harris—"I don't propose to be bulldozed. I'll act according to my best judgment, and it is my judgment that the street should have no jog in it from Main to French."

McNaught—"These men want to lay a sidewalk, and we ought to help them."

Thompson—"Some of the property owners prefer having a jog by accepting five feet rather than make it straight by having to buy ten feet."

Smith exploded with the statement that he wouldn't give ten feet.

Thompson—"I don't care if you don't give anything. All we want is to get this matter settled so we won't be deviled all year about it."

Both Walters and Smith stated that corner stakes had been moved. Engineer Bates desired them to make any proof or show any place where stakes had been moved, and there was nothing more said about stakes by either Walters or Smith. Bates said he was one of the remonstrators to abandoning any of the street, that a majority of those on Fifteenth street remonstrated.

Here Smith was again on his feet. "It is no such thing," he said twice.

Chairman McFadden rapped on the desk.

"Sit down, Mr. Smith. I'll call the marshal and have you put out of the room. When you are in here, you must talk like a gentleman."

Smith—"Perhaps I did talk a little rough."

The attorney said that a district for purchasing a ten-foot strip would add $300 or $400 to the expense, as a district procedure could not be had for less.

There was talk of having Walters and Smith's deeds put in escrow. Chairman McFadden said there was no assurance that Mrs. Hunzinger would give her deed, whatever the board did about abandoning its strip. Harris stated that the sidewalk across the strip could be laid without vacating any of it, leaving four feet between the walk and the property line. A motion allowing that to be done was carried.

Visitors Coming
A letter was read from a Pomona man stating that a number of Pomona officials and property owners will be here on Feb. 11 to look over paved streets.

Speak for Band
Rev. Pyke and Dr. Dobson spoke in regard to the Columbia Band, desiring to keep the band in the minds of the trustees. Rev. Pyke said the band is fortunate in having such an able leader as W. Frank Harris. Dr. Dobson said it would be a good thing if the band would change its name to the Santa Ana Band. The speakers asked for no appropriation, merely speaking for encouragement for the band.

Ready for Terms
Ed. Bradley reported that his mother, on Broadway, is ready to make terms for a right of way across her lot for a part of the proposed drainage alley. He was referred to G. J. Mosbaugh, who has the matter in hand. W. W. Halesworth said the present pipe is sufficient but it needs cleaning out. Superintendent Ward said the pipe fills with silt.

Petitions Referred
Property owners on Hannah street petitioned to have city lights placed to beyond the bridge. The petition was referred to the committee on lights, Harris.

A petition asking for sewer extensions on South Birch from First as far south as practical, and on South Broadway from Second to Chestnut, was referred to Sewer Superintendent Reid.

Petitions for fire hydrants at Flower and Highland, and at the end of Highland were referred to Reid.

A rebate of $12 was given D. M. Nebin, who paid three months' license for a box ball alley and left at the end of a month.

Back to Acreage

The board accepted a replat of the old, Dearing place at the northeast corner of Main and Santa Clara. This was made into city lots by C. D. Taylor. The property now belongs to Russell T. Joy, a Nevada mining man, who has been here recently, and he desires to turn the land back to acreage.

Takes More Than One

Nothing was done in regard to the purchase of the suction street sweeper here on trial. Trustee McNaught said it takes two men to run the machine; that Baxter, the agent, represented that one man could run it.

Park Deed Accepted
Harris stated that the money had been raised for the addition to Birch

Latest Things in Linens

Plain and colored linens are stronger than ever. We have some recent arrivals we want you to see, such as:

All Linen Crash Suits 36 in., 45c. This comes in the crash effect in the colors of old rose, lavender and Copenhagen blue. The natural in the same width comes at 25c to 45c.

Mercerized Linens 27 in., 35c and 50c. The mercerized process gives these linens a soft, beautiful, lustrous finish. We show them in brown, gray, green, tan, light blue, lavender, pink and white. The 50c quality is heavier and firmer.

All Colors in Poplins

For the coming season we are showing a much larger line of the increasingly popular Poplin cloth. You all know the value of this material. We now handle a complete range of colors at the two qualities of 25c and 35c per yard.

A new line of Solsettes has been added in all the wanted shades. This pretty material comes in 30 inch at 25c per yard.

Spring Silks Are Prettiest Ever

For spring we are showing the prettiest line we have ever carried. We have put in the famous high grade, Rogers & Thompson's product.

"Yo-San" Shantung, 27 inch, $1.25. In the beautiful, new diagonal weave, best quality, genuine R & T silk. Such pretty shades as biscuit, smoke gray, reseda green, calawba. Ask to see it.

"Indro" Shantung 27 in., $1.00. Genuine R & T silk in the prettiest plain colors of wisteria, delf blue, old rose, pink, light blue and navy.

Diagonal Silks 36 in., $1.50. A beautiful, lustrous, all silk cloth, medium weight, in the best of spring shades. We carry this in black and cream also.

Park and the deed signed. Instead of paying $1000 this year and $2000 next year, he moved that the city draw a warrant in favor of H. B. Heninger for $3000 now. So ordered. The total cost of the addition is $5100.

It was stated that the city would vacate Park street, just west of the old park, later. The new land will be plowed at once, preparatory to planting.

The chairman was authorized to sign a contract for a curb and gutter on Third street adjoining the purchase.

Cervantes Appointed
On the recommendation of McNaught, police committee, Tioflo Cervantes was appointed a night watchman.

"I wish to pay my respects to a jury that turned a man loose when an officer positively identified him as a man who was engaged in an attempt to kill the officer. Actually some of those jurors censured the officer for doing his duty," said McNaught. He referred to the Heard case.

L. A. Newman was appointed a special officer without pay. He is night watchman at the Santa Fe depot. Engineer Bates was instructed to set stakes on Birch street from Fourth to Fifth, and on Eleventh from Main to Spurgeon, for sidewalks, a 12-foot space in the former and a 9-foot in the latter.

The city named a new employee of the Southern California Edison Co. as the city's gas inspector.

Street in Bad Shape
McNaught—"I wish to protest against the way the gas company leaves the streets after it has torn them up. The street superintendent ought to use the fund in his hands for putting the streets back into shape."

McFadden—"There is a place on Fifth street where the hole has been left in bad shape for several months, and it is not fixed yet."

McNaught said that near his store is a pipe used by the gas company in its work. He had seen people trip over it. The board ordered that the gas company be instructed to put these pipes under the surface of the sidewalk.

Nothing was done further in regard to compelling the gas company to repair the damage done the streets.

Gravel and Oil Talk
Thompson—"Last fall we talked of letting up on sprinkling, and hauling gravel. As long as we keep up the sprinkling we can't do much permanent work on the streets." Street Superintendent Ward said the city needs two new sprinkling carts.

Thompson—"We could proceed to get the streets oiled and graveled, the city putting to grade first, under the Vrooman act. If the property owners knock out the work by a majority remonstrance, let them have a little dust. It doesn't look like good business judgment to spend $3000 a year sprinkling and not a dollar of it for permanent work."

Ward said that Orange has laid gravel and oil at a cost of $3 to $4 a lot. Thompson said a block near his place was fixed with $25 worth of oil and $6 in gravel, a cost of about $3 a lot.

Ward—"The city could do half the work, and the work would not cost on contract but two or three cents a square foot."

Harris suggested that the city begin on East First street, curb to curb. McFadden said a cement curb should be required the full length of the work.

McFadden—"Why not sprinkle just every other day?"

Ward—"That won't keep down the dust. Either quit altogether or do the sprinkling right."

Harris—"I do not favor stopping sprinkling altogether. People would object strongly."

Ward—"Let them holler, until we can get the streets into proper shape."

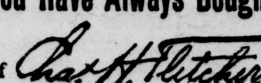

Harris—"Let us pass a resolution calling on property owner to let it be known which streets are ready for this work."

Ward—"They will never let it be known."

McNaught suggested that Thompson and Ward make out a list of streets that should first be fixed with oil and gravel, and the first come first served with the improvement. This suggestion was agreed upon.

The board adjourned to Feb. 21.

BACCALAUREATE SERMON DELIVERED SUNDAY NIGHT

Rev. H. E. Murkett Addressed Graduates
And Audience That Filled
Grand Opera House

By Removing Sin We See God
Out of the moral consciousness has grown a knowledge of sin or a tendency to be separated from the source that gave a desire to be true and religion. Physiological Psychology has given us the workings of the nerves of man and teaches how important the lines of communication are. Destroy the auditory nerve and the hearing is gone. Sever the moral nerve and right and wrong has disappeared. Sever the nerves of faith and hope and the materialistic scientist unites with the fool to say in his heart, "There is no God."
We put our hand in the fire and it burns and when we sin against God it sears our conscience and that burns. We are just as capable of experiencing the pain of one as the other.

Sin takes a man away from God given righteousness and its progress is downward. Holiness is the keeping of righteous law and means progress upward.
The materialistic scientist will say that sin is ignorance and Holiness is knowledge. Give the sinner knowledge and he will come to the state of righteousness. Socrates thought that, and he tried culture on young Alcibiades but the young man only learned more wisely to be a traitor to his country.
I suppose it would have been a good thing to have read literature and works of ethics to the so called boodlers of San Francisco and their increased knowledge would have kept them from their sins.
If a man is a petty thief give him a good education and increase his knowledge and he will use that knowledge to break safes, to forge checks and in many other ways outwit men who have sought to keep their treasures.

To keep a man from sin that society may be protected is the problem of science and to keep a man from sinning that he may not utterly destroy the nerves that take eternal life from God is the problem of Religion.

Again the materialistic scientist says we must wait. Evolution will take care of this problem in time. Such a statement is not true to the findings of science and should not be listened to. Sin has to be rooted out. Burbank does not wait for evolution of a better flower but he proceeds to lift the little flower to a larger and richer one, purer in color.

When the rancher finds trees in his orchard that are not true to nature he does not follow advice that says in time it will develop true to nature. He uses the saw and cuts the tree down to the trunk and buds in the desired kind.

True science does not look to mere culture and development for the cure of nature's evils and she cannot expect that this will be followed in the religious life of man.

In both fields we admit there must be more culture, more education and greater knowledge but with this there must be the axe and pruning knife to crop off real sin.

Jesus stands before the world as a man who never followed the tendency to sin, but he followed the tendency to righteousness and he showed that it was health to Him and He ascended above the normal heights of sinning man.

Thus Jesus tells us that the pure life and the true life is the one that discovers in the consciousness the things God hates and the things God loves and abides thereby.

The problem of science for society and the problems of religion for the eternal welfare of man can be solved by recognizing the relation of God to man and by allowing Jesus to have His way in opening the avenues of the soul so that the Spirit of God will deal with a man for righteousness as the spirit of gravitation holds him to the earth on which he is born.

The history of human development can not be studied without noting that all upward progress is rooted in those who have known God in spirit and have seen His hand beckoning to sinless paths.

STARTLING CURE FOR RUN DOWN NERVES

Robinson Thermal or "Turkish" Bath at Home, Costing But a few Cents Produces Astonishing Results

Drugless Treatment Proves Revelation In Treatment of Many Diseases

—Our Robinson Thermal or Turkish Bath for those of weakened vitality will do more good in a half hour than three months' vacation on a farm—infinite more than can be expected from any drug in the world.

Many startling results have been produced by the use of the Robinson Thermal Bath. It is revolutionizing the treatment of disease. Prominent physicians are abandoning drugs in many cases for this new treatment. Those who have tried them, are astonished at the change in their condition.

The intense exquisite feeling of happiness, strength, and mental clearness which results are impossible to express in words.

Open up the pores and the change seems almost miraculous; nerves are strengthened at once, kidneys get well; eczema, pimples and skin diseases vanish; bad colds, lumbago, rheumatism, dyspepsia, throat and lung trouble, insomnia and constipation disappear as though some wonderful force had lifted them away. Every man or woman can now have a Robinson Thermal Bath at home, at a cost of but a few cents, and without trouble.

This can be done only by the Robinson Thermal Bath Cabinet which is a model of ingenuity. No matter what the size of your purse, you can have one of these cabinets.

The Robinson Thermal Bath Cabinets are now being exhibited, and are on sale in Santa Ana at the Rowley Drug Co., and in Tustin at the Tustin Drug Store.

Ask the dealer also for that great book, "The Philosophy of Health and Beauty." The regular price is $2.00, but you can get one free for a limited time.

Don't pass another day without seeing these cabinets. If you cannot go yourself, just send your name and address today to the Robinson Mfg. Co., Suite 34, Snowflake Bldg., Toledo, O.

—While you are at the auto show in Los Angeles—be sure to see the Ford exhibit. A very clear idea can be had of "Ford doctrine."

OBEY THE LAW

Stop your car on the right hand side of the street, the law requires you to do this for your own safety as well as for the safety and convenience of others. If you are driving a 1910 Reo which has its steering wheel on the left side of the car, your lady can step gracefully to the pavement without being put to the necessity of either getting out in the mud or the equally disagreeable and distasteful alternative of climbing over or under the steering wheel, which is not only annoying but is undignified, to say nothing of the danger of damaging her frock and possibly her temper. Take no chances gentlemen, be on the safe side and the right side. You eliminate all this trouble if you buy a 1910 Reo and your lady will appreciate your good judgment.

The "New Idealism" was probably born in Chicago, but its last demonstration was in New York. "At night," said the demonstrator, "after you are undressed, put the tips of your fingers on the crown of your head and imagine an angel pulling a cord out of you at that point, and pulling and pulling. That will lift all the body into the right position." We are also advised to "paw the floor like a horse," as that will keep our joints limber, and to keep in mind the fact that we are brothers, or sisters, as may be, "to the little flowers," all of which is calculated to make us so "young and strong and firm" that we will never, no never, be otherwise.

Fifty thousand for a couple of pieces of old iron is a pretty good price, even if they did come from the nether regions of space. This is a part of the proceeds of Peary's trip to the north pole, and is all right as far as he is concerned, and if the lady who bought them thinks they are worth the money we have no kick coming.

Paulhan having come to grief at Denver because of the cramped conditions under which he was forced to make his exhibitions will again be reminded of a certain favored place where he could not only fly every day in the week, but had "room according to his strength."

Theoretically, monopoly is "the best for all concerned, but practically, it is the worst. Like many other theories that depend on frail humanity in their execution, the fulfillment does not correspond with the promise.

From the jungles of tropical Africa to the ice fields of the Antarctic regions is a far cry, but then it is T. Roosevelt who has it in mind and he generally arrives on time.

France is profuse in its gratitude to this country for aid in this its hour of need. But did not France once aid us when we were in need?

It seems passing strange that candidates for office are asking the voters if they can run. Truly, time works great changes.

The Political Watchtower

There will be a three-cornered fight for the Republican nomination for coroner and public administrator. That is, there will not be less than three corners. There may be more. Theo Winbiger and George S. Smith, incumbent, have been avowed candidates for some time. Now comes D. A. Blank, an Orange undertaker, with the declaration that he is a candidate.

J. L. McBride of 1611 East Fourth, Santa Ana, has announced that he is a candidate for the Republican nomination for county surveyor. That he would be a candidate has been generally understood for some time. The formal announcement is made in the Register today.

McBride is well known all over the county. Practically all his life has been spent at Tustin and Santa Ana. For the past five years he has been in the surveying profession with Col. S. H. Finley. A year of that time was spent in the county surveyor's office with Col. Finley. Consequently, the work of the office is familiar to Mr. McBride. His training has been of the thorough kind in the field, and in his work he has become familiar with every foot of Orange county.

Mr. McBride has taken much interest in the work of the national guard. He is first lieutenant-elect of Company L.

Frank Vegely is making a vigorous fight for the Republican nomination for county assessor. His old-time friends are glad to see him out after the job, and he is getting excellent assurances of support from all of them. Mr. Vegely has lived in Orange county many years, and served faithfully in the term of four years ago. He is a capable, efficient man.

A number of new verification clerks have been appointed. Among them are the following: For R. P. Mitchell, candidate for the Republican nomination for school superintendent, E. M. Nealley of Tustin, and J. C. Mitchell of Garden Grove; for S. M. Davis, candidate for district attorney, W. W. Crosier of Newport Beach, and A. G. Phelps of Westminster; for C. R. Schenck, candidate for county surveyor, J. G. Lauer of La Habra; for August Lemke, candidate for justice of the peace of Yorba township, Herman Lemke of Yorba; for G. L. Jackson, candidate for constable of Orange township, A. H. Small of Orange; for H. A. Miller, candidate for constable of Orange township, A. E. Yoeman.

George S. Smith of Santa Ana, is a candidate to succeed himself as coroner and public administrator. He is now serving his second term in the office to which he expects to be returned. He came to this city twenty years ago, Illinois being his native state. He is aged 39 years. He has been in the undertaking business for eighteen years.

He is an ardent worker in the Republican ranks and a strong supporter of its policies. He served one term as secretary of the central committee. But few men in the county have a wider acquaintance than has George Smith. He is courteous and capable in the conduct of his office.

Bert A. Annin, a Fullerton rancher, will oppose H. H. Hale of Placentia, for the Republican nomination for supervisor from the third district.

Will on a Postcard

The German courts have just had a curious case before them. A trader died at Bad Mannheim, and three days before his death he sent a postcard to a lady friend on her birthday, deploring that he was ill and so far away from her, relates the London Globe. He also said, "For a good birthday present I am leaving to you my fortune." The lady to whom this postcard was sent claimed that the missive constituted a will in her favor. She claimed the estate, which was valued at about 200,000 marks. In the first court the decision was against her, and on appeal the findings of the court below were upheld. The grounds of the decision were that, by German law, when a person draws up his own will it is necessary for the document to state where it was written. The trader, although he had duly signed the card, omitted to place his address upon it.

A Baltimore school teacher had encountered such a degree of ignorance on the part of one of her boys in relation to the recorded acts of the father of his country that she grew sarcastic.

"I wonder," she began, "if you could tell me whether George Washington was a soldier or a sailor?" The boy grinned. "He was a soldier, all right," he said.

Wisconsin Picnic

The Wisconsin picnic will be held at Sycamore Grove, Los Angeles, on Saturday, Feb. 12, Lincoln's birthday.

For Sweet Girl Graduates

A pleasant party was given Saturday night in honor of Misses Helen Anderson and Florence Yoch, both of whom graduate this week from High School, and Miss Edith Perry, who soon leaves for Los Angeles to reside. The affair was given at the home of Miss Marian Bristol, by a number of the girl friends of these young ladies. Violets were used in decoration and a charming evening was spent, delicious refreshments closing the event.

Among those who were present were Mrs. William Malone, Misses Marian Bristol, Kassa Bailey, Eleanor Rittner, Francis Cope, Frances Bruner, Florence Crosier, Mary Wilkes and Dorothy Stafford, besides the guests of honor. The gentlemen included Mr. Malone, John Newcomer, Marshall Pumphrey, Ellis Breeden, Dean Collier, Tom Wotton, Ted Shaw, Granville Tedford, Stanley Visel and Arthur Lutz.

An Enforced Rest

Prof. Edward B. Oakley has gone up to Los Angeles for a few days' enforced rest. He has been suffering from an obstinate attack of jaundice for several weeks, and it was thought by his physician that the complete rest from school duties would be beneficial.

Prof. Oakley has taught for thirty years, and, until two years ago, when he was ill two days with grippe, he has never missed one half day of school because of illness. This is a remarkable record.

Vandermaast & Son

when the oldest member of the Corps, Mrs. Elizabeth Driggs, presented her with a gold and silver berry spoon, she was still more surprised. But that was not all; the next oldest member of Sedgwick Relief Corps, Mrs. Marie C. Johnston who had planned the delightful occasion, went forward and presented her with a silver meat fork. Thereupon the next oldest member, Mrs. Alice Yount, presented her with a sugar spoon, and Mrs. Cassie Ferguson gave her a cream ladle, until the lady thus honored was so overcome that she was as likely to say "next" as anything else; but she rallied and promised to be real good and "spoony" in the future. Mr. Jones, coming in, said he could appreciate that last remark.

The guests were served with cheese sandwiches, tea, cake and ice cream, each one taking home a red, heart-shaped valentine, upon which was inscribed in gold, "My heart's gift to thee," as a souvenir of the occasion.

Mrs. Jones has been a most faithful corps member, shouldering the burdens of president in an early day when the corps was in a struggling condition and presents were not thought of. She is looked upon as one who knows the work, and now, when everything is in a flourishing condition, the ladies thought they would show their appreciation of her services for the last twenty-four years. Mrs. Jones may well feel proud of the spirit shown by her sister members yesterday.

Among the out of town members were Mrs. Carrie Bent of Prado, Mrs. Jessie Boynton of Long Beach, Mrs. Abigail Atkinson and Mrs. McKeen of Garden Grove, and Mrs. Caroline Newman and granddaughter, of Los Angeles.

Following is a list of those present:

Mesdames Alexander, Allyn, Bonney, Culver, Cummings, Cunningham, Driggs, Egerton, Ferguson, Flowers, Fippes, Gerwing, Hennacy, Hemstock, Harlan, Havens, Harmon, Huddleston, Johnston, Jenkins, Jones, Johnson, Kryhl, Lusher, Moesser, McTaggart, Moore, Mitchell, Ostot, Powers, Paul, Rogers, Rutherford, Ritchey, Smith, Stroop, Wells, Wallace, Yount.

Missionary Meeting

The Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church will hold the mite box and all day meeting in the church on Wednesday, Feb. 9. The members are each asked to take a box lunch for two.

Travelers' Club Meeting

Fourteen ladies of the Travelers' Club No. 1 met at the residence of Mrs. John Dryer yesterday afternoon in a pleasant session. Mrs. Arthur Ames gave an interesting resume of current events and discovery. Following this was the comprehensive paper on "Politics," written by Mrs. J. P. Baumgartner, and read by Mrs. Carden in the absence of Mrs. Baumgartner. The Travel Magazine proved interesting reading during the remainder of the study hour.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her sister, Miss Alexander. The next meeting will be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Mary Heathman.

Canton Evening

An event in Canton circles was the annual installation and inspection of Santa Ana Canton, No. 18, Patriarchs Militant, last evening. The chevaliers added a social feature to the ceremonies of the occasion by inviting their wives to be present. The officers elect who were inducted into office were Robert Squires, Captain; Chas. P. Mattern, Lieutenant; W. W. Chandler, Ensign; W. J. Morrison, Clerk; and W. B. Tedford, Accountant. The inspection was conducted by Major Clapp of Covina.

The social hour following the installation and inspection gave the ladies an opportunity to congratulate the chevaliers on their impressive work and appearance which they did not neglect. A substantial banquet was an appreciated feature of the evening, covers being laid for probably 125 people, including members and guests. Flags and flowers were used in decoration.

Veteran Rebekahs

At the regular quarterly meeting of the Rebekahs held in I. O. O. F. Hall, the ladies decided to accept the invitation of the Canton ladies to serve on the reception committee at the social function to be given by them on Feb. 21, all to be given in Colonial costumes. Other business included a report from the committee to visit the sick.

After the business session, the hostesses of the afternoon, Mesdames Holt, Anderson and Dibble invited the company into the banquet hall where a substantial repast was awaiting them. Each lady received a valentine as souvenir of the occasion.

The next quarterly meeting will be held in May.

Whist and Musicals

Mrs. A. J. Padgham was hostess at two very charming affairs yesterday. In the afternoon she entertained something less than fifty ladies at whist. Mrs. Padgham's awards for best scores were dainty and poetical, being lovely carnations and violets. Carnations and ferns were used in the house decorations, and a two-course collation was served.

In the evening some seventy guests were delightfully entertained with a musical program, dainty refreshments being served at its close. The program of the evening follows:

"And I," "If I Were a Bee" (Jessie Gaynor), "Marguerite, So Fair" (M. L. Macfarlane) Jean Marietta Shupp.

"A Tale" (Robert Browning) Lena Cooper.

"A Bowl of Roses" (Robert Clark), "Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes" (Old English) Percy Rice.

"Zueignung" (devotion) (Richard Strauss) "It Was a Dream" (E. Lassen) Jean Marietta Shupp.

Birthday Dinner

Sunday, Feb. 6, was the birthday of Dr. T. J. Houghton and a number of friends were entertained at a birthday dinner at which covers were laid for fourteen. Out of town guests present were Mrs. T. S. Hampton of Pasadena with her two daughters; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hargrove, late of Florida; Mr. George Harper of Orange. Other guests were Capt. T. M. Turner, Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Douglass and Rev. and Mrs. Van Cleave of Santa Ana. A sumptuous old time Southern dinner was enjoyed and an afternoon of pleasant conversation followed.

Travelers Meet

The second section of the Travelers met with Mrs. Cole, 2038 North Main, yesterday, and finished reading the Passion Play and took up the study of Paris. There was a good attendance.

Automobile Party

Mrs. H. E. McKean of Garden Grove entertained an auto party at her cottage at Laguna Beach. There was a sumptuous dinner at 12 o'clock. The invited guests were Mrs. A. L. Atkinson, Mrs. R. H. English, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. West, and daughter, Marguerite, Mrs. Jessie Boyington of Long Beach, Mrs. Richardson and Charlie McKean of Garden Grove.

TEXT OF DECISION IN THE SAN MATEO SALARIES CASE

The following is the text of the decision in San Francisco that caused District Attorney Davis to notify Auditor Lester and Treasurer Joplin yesterday that the payment of salaries under the new law are illegal:

Civil No. 731. First District. February 4, 1910.

PAULINE E. HANSON, Plaintiff, v. W. H. UNDERHILL, as Auditor of the County of San Mateo, State of California, Defendant.

Application for Writ of Mandate prayed to be directed to W. H. Underhill as Auditor of the County of San Mateo.

For Petitioner—A. Kincaid.

For Respondent—J. J. Bullock.

This is an application for a writ of mandate to compel the defendant, as auditor of San Mateo county, to draw a warrant upon the county treasurer for the payment of $66.66, claimed by the petitioner as salary as deputy recorder of said county for the month of September, 1909. A demurrer has been interposed to the petition; and at the argument it was conceded that the facts stated in the petition are true, and that the question for determination is a question of law as to whether or not the petition states facts sufficient to entitle petitioner to any relief.

It appears that the November election in 1906, one J. F. Johnston was elected recorder of the county of San Mateo, and duly qualified as such. His term of office commenced on the first Monday after the 1st day of January, 1907. At the time he was elected, and when his term began, the law fixed his salary at $3500 per annum, and in effect provided that such salary should be in full compensation for all services of every kind and description rendered by him, and that all deputies employed should be paid by him out of his salary (County Government Act 1905, sec. 215; Pol. Code, sec. 4290). At the session of the legislature held in 1907, section 4261 of the Political Code was amended as to counties of the thirty-second class (San Mateo), by which it was provided as follows: "In counties of the thirty-second class the county officers shall receive as compensation for the services required of them by law or by virtue of their office the following salaries to wit: . . . 3. The Recorder, $3,500 per annum, and said recorder may appoint two deputy reorders, which offices are hereby created, who shall receive a salary of $800 per annum. The deputies herein provided for shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner and out of the same fund as the Recorder is paid."

After the said section was so amended, and after it had gone into effect in May, 1909, the petitioner was duly appointed by Johnston deputy recorder of said county of San Mateo, and took the proper oath and qualified as such deputy recorder.

The constitution of the state, at the time the said Johnston was so elected recorder, provided and ever since has provided as follows: "The compensation of any county, city, town or municipal officer shall not be increased after his election or during his term of office." The question then arises as to whether or not the amendment of 1909 to section 4261 of the Political Code increased the compensation of the county recorder of San Mateo county. When he was elected his compensation was $3500, out of which he was required to pay all his deputies and assistants as we have before stated, and of course the net sum he received as compensation was the remainder of the $3500 after paying his deputies or other assistants. The law then made no provision for paying any deputy or assistant; and hence if the said recorder had been compelled to employ two deputies at a salary of $800 per year each his net compensation would have been $1900. Now if the legislature had added $1600 to the $3500, thus making his salary $5100 after his election and during his term of office, there would be no question but that such additional compensation would be within the plain prohibition of the constitution. The legislature could not, by a plain direct act, in terms increase his salary, and this is so evident that even a layman would so declare. It such salary could not be increased directly, and no matter what it is called it is in effect an increase in compensation. It is as much an increase of compensation to allow to the recorder $1600 with which to pay his house rent or with which to purchase groceries. The case is the same in principle as Dougherty v. Austin, 91 Cal. 601, where it was held that an order of the board of supervisors of Marin county, allowing the county clerk a deputy at a salary of $50 a month, where no deputy had been allowed before, was in effect an increase in compensation and void. It was there said by the chief justice: "The sum allowed to any given officer being a lump sum, out of which he must pay for the services of all deputies and assistants necessary for the prompt and faithful discharge of all the duties of the office, it is evident that his own compensation consists of the residue remaining after the payment of such deputies and assistants; and it is equally evident that just so far as the county assumes the payment of such deputies and assistants, such residue is enlarged and the compensation increased."

The above case has not been overruled but on the contrary has been followed in all subsequent decisions to which our attention has been called (Agard v. Shaffer, 141 Cal. 725; Humiston v. Shaffer, 145 Cal. 195). There are cases holding that where the statute provides a fixed salary for the officer, and a fixed salary for a certain number of deputies, all payable out of the county treasury, an increase in the salary of such deputies, or a provision for extra deputies, is not within the prohibition of the constitution for the reason that in such case the state has undertaken to pay the salary of the officer, and in addition to pay the expenses of running the office, such as clerk hire, deputies and so forth (Newman v. Lester, 9 Cal. App. 532, Oct. 25, 1909; Tulare Co. v. May, 118 Cal. 303; Harold v. Barnum, 3 Cal. App. Rep. 211).

In the latter case the rule laid down in Daggett v. Ford County, 99 Ill. 334, is adopted, where it was held that if the statute allowed a fixed compensation as salary to the officer, and a further sum to cover the clerk hire and expenses of the office, if it was found that the sum so allowed was insufficient, such allowance might be increased; or, in other words, that the allowance for expense of clerk hire or deputies might be increased. But we have not been referred to any case that holds that where a lump sum is allowed to cover compensation and expenses, such sum can be increased.

It follows that the demurrer must be sustained, and the writ discharged.

YUCAIPA VALLEY

Redlands, California

The Men Behind the Enterprise

With all its wealth of soil, scenery, water and climate even the Yucaipa Valley could not forge ahead and score the success to which it is entitled, without sound, conservative, sensible business management. Each and every man behind the enterprise has been most carefully selected because of fitness for his position.

THE OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

B. B. HARLAN,

President and General Manager.

M. N. NEWMARK,

H. H. FORD,

E. M. LYON,

G. A. ATWOOD,
Capitalist and Extensive Land Owner, San Bernardino, Cal.
Director.

A. N. DIKE,
Orange Grower of Dike & Logie, Redlands, Cal.
Director.

The above men are the originators of the Yucaipa Valley project. They have all invested large sums of money in it. They are backing the enterprise with their experience and judgment, and each and every man is working for its success.

To all home loving people; to those who seek the best in soil, climate and scenery and are not satisfied with less; to those who know the best when they see it with their own eyes, we extend an invitation to the opening sale of Yucaipa Valley Lands, and Yucaipa City town lots, to be held in the Valley Feb. 8 to 18, 1910. Intending visitors should buy railway tickets to Redlands, California, and call at the office of the Redlands and Yucaipa Land Company, 209 Orange street. Low rates on all Railroads.

Words cannot picture the Valley's wondrous beauty or tell a complete story of its marvelous fertility, perfection of climate and its inexhaustible supply of pure water. No man can appreciate the wealth, beauty and unlimited possibilities of the Yucaipa without a personal visit, and we ask you to come and see for yourself. To see is to believe.

You Have Heard of the Yucaipa

Since the Mission Fathers crossed the desert more than a hundred years ago and found perfect rest, health and a profusion of wealth in its fertile acres and by its never ending springs, it has been famous as "The Gem Valley of Southern California." In a country less favored than ours, this would mean less. Consider its significant meaning here in a country famed the world over for its productiveness, its beautiful scenery and perfection of climate.

The Opening of the Valley

The opening of the Yucaipa marks an epoch in the development of Southern California. It means that over 11,000 acres of the richest land in the state that has for years poured a golden stream of enormous profits into the coffers of private owners, will be thrown open for settlement in small tracts, and will be sold without reservation or favoritism. It means thousands of new homes in a fertile, sheltered valley where crop failures are unknown, profits certain and all and every condition for ideal living perfect. It means the building of a modern city and railroad and the doubling and trebling in value of thousands of acres of fertile land to the great profit of the early purchasers. This is what the opening of the Yucaipa Valley means in general. What does it mean to you, in particular? It depends on the part you take in this great development enterprise. Come to the Yucaipa and see for yourself.

From Oranges to Apples

Between these two extremes there is a variety of crops covering almost the entire range of California's great possibilities in crop culture. Yet in the Yucaipa's fertile soil there are the essentials to grow almost any one to perfection. The story of soil adaptability and the various crops, the wondrous beauty of scenery and climate is too long to tell in this brief space. Come and see for yourself. If you cannot come, write for free illustrated literature that tells in detail a truthful story of the Yucaipa Valley.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

A decline in the price of tomatoes was one of the features on the market yesterday morning. The Cuban and Mexican stock is arriving regularly and strange to state, there is not as heavy demand for the vegetable this year as last year at the same time. Cuban tomatoes sold on the street at $2.35 as bottom. Mexican sold as low as $2, and Redlands hothouse stock brought 50 cents. Cucumbers were in excellent demand. They sold right up to quotations and very few brought less than $1 per dozen. There was an excellent call for celery, and the small arrivals were well cleaned up early in the morning. This has given celery a better tone in the market, bringing top quotations to $2.75 per crate. Lettuce was scarce and brought as much as $1.65 per crate.

The egg market continued firm. Receipts were 207 cases of locals. Case count sold at 27 and 27½ cents a dozen. The same price is prevailing in the east. The Chicago market shows quotations on fresh eggs at 27 cents. Arrivals in all parts of the country are growing heavier. There were 10 changes in eastern storage stock prices.

Butter receipts were 13,180 pounds. The market on butter was quiet, and on best grades firm with light receipts. There were no great sales and only cooking and lard sold a trifle better than ordinarily.

Eastern longhorn cheese sold well and northern fresh was also featured in sales. Prices were firm on these as well as on most of the other varieties on the list. Receipts were fair, 3456 pounds.

Potato arrivals totaled 3556 sacks. The market on spuds was only fair. Salinas were in demand. A few local Burbanks were obtainable. Highland were firm and moved better than other varieties.

More firmness was apparent in the onion market. Australian browns brought 5 to 10 cents more a hundred among the jobbers than they did last Saturday. No arrivals being reported was one of the chief causes for the better tone.

Pink beans were fair sellers. Only 400 sacks were received of all varieties. No changes were recorded in prices. The market on sweet potatoes was a trifle brighter, quotations being up several points owing to the non-arrival of any stock yesterday morning.

The first strawberries of the new spring crop were reported in. Only five or six crates were received on the entire market. The berries sold at 20 cents a basket to the leading downtown hotels. In other fruits there were no changes.

Fish arrivals were scarcely large enough to care for the demand of the morning. Halibut continued most plentiful of the ocean varieties. King fish and smelts made up the supply on small fish.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—If spirits made from sugar cane is rum, and spirits made from grain is whiskey, what is spirits made from sugar beets?

This is the question that the internal revenue collectors and the pure food experts are working over. President Taft, it is said, has declared that he has said all he is going to about whiskey, and ordered his subordinates to settle the question. The Executive's decision in the What Is Whiskey? case laid down the rule that grain spirits must be called whiskey.

abounds, but which will not long continue in that open and unprotected region.

"I think this park contains the largest distinct habitat of the mountain sheep within the limits of the United States. A senator who has visited the place recently, spoke of ascending one of the pinnacles or cliffs and observing the mountain sheep going down to an ancient lick, where salt oozed out of the side of the cliff. He said that these sheep had been traveling down that mountain cliff until they had worn pathways through solid rock along the trail, and that sometimes these gashes in the rocks reached as deep as two feet. Through all the centuries those interesting animals have been visiting that spot. It is surely desirable that this last retreat of this rare class of animals should be preserved in some manner from invasion, so as to avert extermination.

"Mountain goats abound there also; and it is believed that it would be well to set apart this limited patch of ground in all the vast extent of the Rocky Mountains, where these animals can repair in peace to abide and propagate their kind and prevent the extinction of that species."

If Panama is to be made sufficiently productive of food to provide for the thirty thousand canal diggers, this must be accomplished by others than the Panamanians.

This is the conclusion of the experts recently sent there by the Department of Agriculture to study farming conditions. They will shortly issue a report upon the opportunities in farming which that country offers to settlers, and the practicability of the establishment of government farms for the supply of Uncle Sam's employees.

Discussing the farm settlers' chances, one of the experts said that there was a market for products unequalled in this country. Practically all of the food of the Americans working upon the canal is canned or cold storage, and this diet is beginning to tell upon them, not only in their energy, but in the apathy with which they face vegetables tinctured with tin and meats that, even though garnished with highly seasoned sauces, have the suggestive, ghost-like taste of food preservatives. A good idea of their eagerness for real unbenzoated food is the price they willingly pay for fresh milk—from thirty to fifty cents a quart.

Of course the men now there will return when the canal is completed, but it will be necessary always to maintain a large operating force there and the canal itself will mean a large growth in population, just as at Suez. There now seems every probability that the zone will be garrisoned.

Though the ground is rough and broken, there is little soil erosion and the climatic conditions make up for the difficulties in cultivation. A stick sawed off and stuck in the ground would almost take root and grow. Of course some experimentation in the vegetables and grains which are best suited to the region would be necessary, but it is probable that the Agricultural Department will establish "experiment gardens" there, which would aid the farmer immensely.

By far the greatest difficulty which the settler would encounter is the labor problem. Though it is a hard thing for the American to understand, the average Panamanian is not strong enough to make a good farm hand. As the natives in Panama are not bothered with the high cost of living they are content to depend for sustenance upon a half acre
